KING LEAR PERFORMED BY ACTORS FROM THE LONDON STAGE

MARCH 12, 2027

10AM - Full production lasting over 2 hours

Founded in 1975, Actors From The London Stage (AFTLS) is one of the oldest touring Shakespeare theatre companies in the world. Housed and workshopped in the UK and based in the United States at Shakespeare at Notre Dame, this intensive residency program is truly one of a kind.

Confronting the role of the monarch in the balance between authority and chaos, King Lear reveals the beauty of selfless love, the heartache of betrayal, and the descent of civilization into brutishness when selfish greed has run amuck. Shakespeare's powerful examination of madness, politics, and filial love is as resonant and important as ever.
